IS PRINCESS OF WALES COMING, TOO?

Princess of Wales.

How new Chamber will look From architect's plans.

Prince of Wales.

Morris K. Jessup, Pres. of Chamber

Much delight is expressed by English press and public at the prospect of the Prince of Wales paying a visit to America during October, next. The ostensible object of the visit of his royal highness will be to attend the dedicatory ceremony of the New York chamber of commerce building, but Wales will take advantage of the opportunity to make a complete tour of the country under the auspices of the chamber. Whether the princess will accompany the prince has not yet been definitely decided, although it has been suggested in London that this would be stealing a splendid march on the kaiser, who sent Prince Henry over here without his wife.

CLUB CHAT

The Daughters of the Revolution met this afternoon in the Exponent office.

As time draws near the biennial, increased interest is manifested in local club circles, and the list of those going to Los Angeles for the event grows larger. Thirty-five Utah women are already booked for the trip and there will probably be other names added before the day of departure. The delegation will start on Monday, the 25th, through the courtesy of the R. G. W. Pullman cars will be reserved for their use. The time of departure from Salt Lake will be 9:30 a. m. from the R. G. W. depot. Leave Ogden 11:15 a. m., arriving at Oakland Tuesday 4:25 p. m. There the cars will be attached to the "Owl" train leaving Oakland 5:45 p. m. and arriving at Los Angeles Wednesday 8:30 a. m. This will give one day for rest before the opening of the convention. Those desiring to secure berths to Los Angeles must apply at once to Mr. I. A. Benton, city passenger and ticket agent of the R. G. W., Salt Lake City. The price of the berth is $3 and must be paid upon application. Hotel quarters will be the Utah headquarters.

Following is a list of the delegates and clubwomen who have signified their intention of making the trip: Salt Lake—Messdames J. C. Royle, J. Hayward, L. Frank, Hugh Park, Julia Taylor, Howard Stoe, Allen T. Sanford, Straus, Elmer B. Jones, T. D. Evans, E. D. Miller, Florence Kelly and mother, W. A. Neiden, F. A. Vincent, Ellen Elliott, F. D. Bickford and Miss Buckbee. Ogden—Messdames C. E. Coulter, Gordon, Valentine Gideon, Kate S. Hilliard, Jennie Nelson and Minnie Stevens.

Provo—Mrs. Searle and Miss Pauline Moore. Springville—Mrs. Mack Dougall, Miss Julia Allemen, Miss Dougall and Miss Emma Dougall. Kathlamet—L. M. Underwood and Mrs. Mary Gee, Montpelier; Mrs. Samuel H. Hays, Boise. Montana—Mrs. William J. Christie, Butte.

The Reapers' club met in the Woman's Exponent office, Templeton building, on Monday, April 14, a portion of which being devoted to business. Mrs. Carrie S. Thomas was appointed to represent the Reapers' club on the entertainment committee of U. F. W. clubs. The program commenced with reading a brief selection from the Works of Josephus, by Mrs. Mary L. Morris. This was followed by a paper on the "Life of Plato," by Mrs. J. L. Trescott. Mrs. C. S. Thomas then read some paragraphs from the "History of Rome." The exercises closed with mention of current events. The club then adjourned for two weeks, to meet on Monday, April 25, when Mrs. B. B. Wells is expected to give a half hour's talk, and exercises from others will complete the program. A full attendance is desired.

At the first business session of the biennial, Mrs. Denison of New York, will move a suspension of business to offer a resolution making Mrs. Caroline M. Severance of Los Angeles, honorary vice-president of the G. F. W. C. "Madame" Severance, as he is always called, is an eastern woman, who has recent deaths in the Federation deplores, Mrs. L. H. Stone of Michigan, and Mrs. J. C. Croly of New York—with that far-seeing and prophetic knowledge without which no promoter of a great movement becomes really efficient.

A circular is being sent from Los Angeles to the Federated clubs which offers certain privileges to clubwomen who may be delegates and alternates, who may be contemplating the trip to the biennial. If these will procure credentials from their club, showing them to be members in good standing, and will send such credentials to Mrs. W. F. Pitt, No. 143 Winfield street, Los Angeles, Cal., a "club woman" ticket will be sent to them.

Los Angeles expects 6,000 women to visit that city at the time of the biennial and every possible arrangement for their comfort is being made. There will be many tokens of hospitality, but the one formal reception which is allowed on the regular program will be held on the evening of May 2, in the woman's clubhouse. A complimentary excursion will be given to the Federated on May 7. The round trip ticket is good for two months, and California has enough attractions to hold the visitors to their full time limit.
